Joe Higgins: The Real Opposition

Since being elected in 1997 Joe Higgins, the Socialist Party TD, has been involved in the anti-war movement, the Shell to Sea campaign at went to prison for his role in the anti-bin tax campaign. He also was involved in the GAMA workers strike.

Even 'the Star' said "He is the opposition". Also Labour's leader Pat Rabbitte commented: "If I was a constituent I would rather have Joe Higgins fighting my corner than all 5 Sinn Fein TDs".

A Workers' TD on a Workers' Wage

Joe has used his position in the Dail to assist worker's and young people's struggles, no to enrich himself like the so mmany other TDs. He lives on the average industrial wage, donating the rest to the Socialis Party and community campaigns.

No Big Business Donations

Whilst the other parties get huge donations and 'loans' from big business, land speulators, construction companies and the like, the Socialist Party do not. We rely completely on the support of ordinary working people.

If you want to make sure Joe Higgins keeps his seat and is joined by more social-ists in the next Dail come along and enjoy the pub quiz or consider making a donation.
